

Embracing Our Dying is an online resource for Catholics facing end-of-life issues.

Our site provides useful information for individuals, families and/or parish communities.

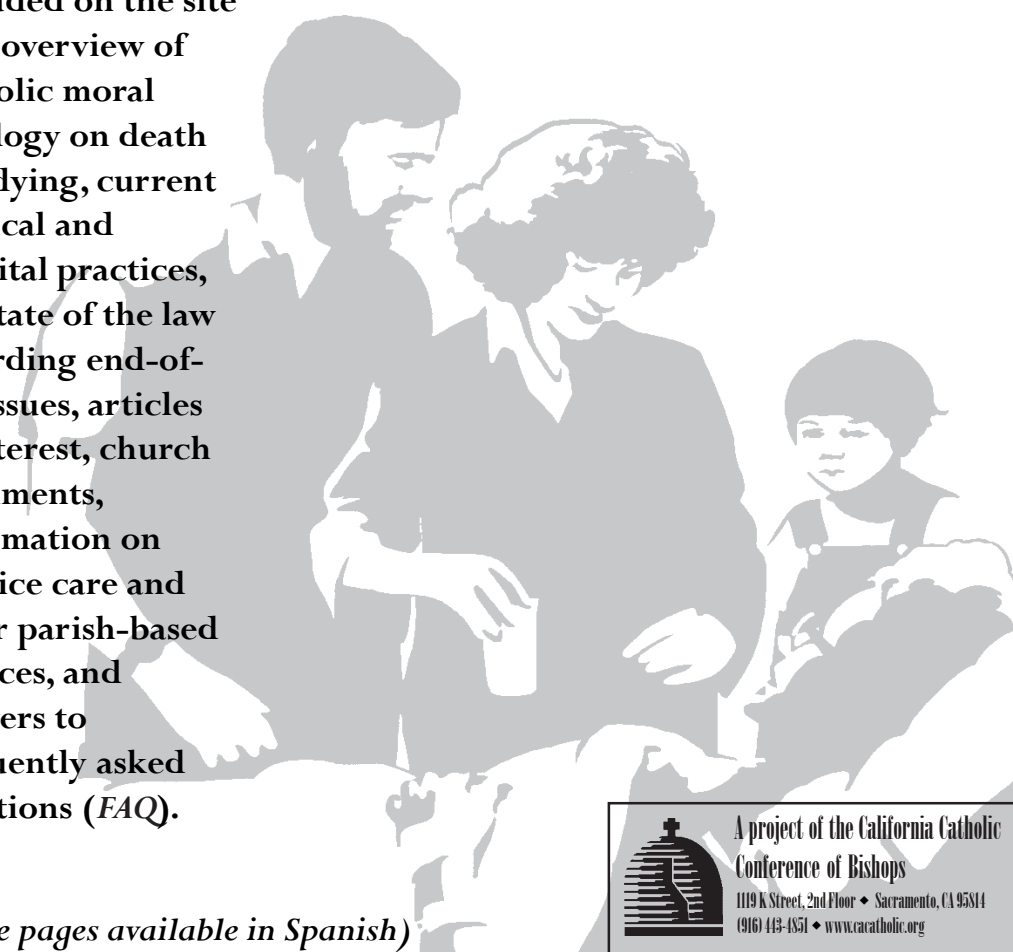

www.EmbracingOurDying.com

Included on the site is an overview of Catholic moral theology on death and dying, current medical and hospital practices, the state of the law regarding end-of-life issues, articles of interest, church documents, information on hospice care and other parish-based services, and answers to frequently asked questions (FAQ).

(Some pages available in Spanish)

“We chose the name Embracing Our Dying because we know that if those who are dying are embraced by their family and their community, they will not seek death, but will live their last days well, and then accept death when it comes.”

—Most Reverend Gerald Wilkerson, Los Angeles Auxiliary Bishop, San Fernando Pastoral Region
